

CILT YOUNG PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIP

Young professionals are the future of the industry. In his inaugural speech, International President Kevin Byrne said that CILT “must not just enable today’s leaders but nurture tomorrows”.

The CILT young professional membership is designed to engage young people in the institute, allow them access to experience and a wide array of support to grow their careers. Young professionals are recognized as the future leaders of our industry and supported to become tomorrow’s leaders of our institute.

Membership of the young professionals section of CILT NZ provides innumerable opportunities to grow yourself as a future leader in the transport and logistics sector internationally.

Members of the Young Professionals cohort are offered:

- ✓ Opportunities for professional development
- ✓ Mentoring connections
- ✓ Learning opportunities
- ✓ Networking with other Young Professionals
- ✓ Engagement with experienced professionals in your field
- ✓ An opportunity to shape the future of the industry and explore new opportunities
- ✓ A voice for the next generation in our institute
- ✓ The opportunity to apply for a number of academic and industry awards, with several catering specifically for the young professionals

Membership is open to all interested students and professionals under the age of 35. Please contact info@cilt.co.nz for further details.
