

The Chartered
Institute of Logistics
and Transport

2020 Annual Awards

The Chartered Institute of Logistics and Transport in New Zealand
Incorporated (CILT) Annual Awards

Nominations for the 2020 Awards are open!

2020 Awards Dinner

Where: Royal NZ Yacht Squadron
Auckland

When: Wednesday 14th October

Close-off dates for nominations are 15 August for A3 and 31 August for all other categories. All nominations must be made electronically. Further details of awards and requirements for applications are available on the website www.cilt.co.nz

The Chartered
Institute of Logistics
and Transport

2020 Annual Awards Categories

Academic/Research Category

- A1 The MITO / CILT Scholarship for a Graduate of MITO or TranzQual ITO to Undertake Further Training in the Road Transport, Logistics, Ports or Stevedoring Sectors.
- A2 The CILT-UK Diploma Top Student
- A3 The Award for Outstanding Research Achievement for a Masters' Dissertation or Thesis.

Communications and Industry Category

- B1 The CILT Communications Award.
- B2 The Dexion Award for Excellence and Innovation
- B3 The Safety Made Simple Award for Innovation or Best Practice in Health and Safety
- B4 The CILT Award for Rising Star Young Employee of the Year.

Close-off dates for nominations are 15 August for A3 and 31 August for all other categories. All nominations must be made electronically.

Further details of awards and requirements for applications are available on the website www.cilt.co.nz

The Chartered
Institute of Logistics
and Transport

2020 Annual Awards Categories

Excellence Category

- C1 Young Achiever of the Year.
 - C2 The Norman Spencer Memorial Medal for Contribution to Transport and the Institute.
 - C3 The Sir Bob Owens Award for Outstanding Contribution to the Logistics, Transport, Supply Chain Sector & Community.
-

Full detail of all awards are available on the below link <https://cilt.co.nz/awards/categories-and-criteria/>

Close-off dates for nominations are 15 August for A3 and 31 August for all other categories. All nominations must be made electronically.

Further details of awards and requirements for applications are available on the website www.cilt.co.nz