6. Declaration of Ownership of Intellectual Property

By signing this declaration, the nominator and nominee confirm that:

- They have the right to submit the nomination and all supporting material provided with it.
- The nomination does not knowingly infringe the intellectual property rights of any other person or organisation.
- Where third-party material is included, the necessary permission has been obtained or the material is clearly identified as third-party material.
- CILT NZ may copy and share the nomination and supporting material with judges and administrators for awards-related purposes.
- CILT NZ may use non-confidential summaries, extracts, images, names, organisation names, and award-related information for awards promotion, unless specific confidentiality limits are identified below.
- Any confidential or commercially sensitive information has been clearly marked in the nomination material.

Confidentiality limits or commercially sensitive information, if any:

7. Use of Application Materials, Images and Awards Presentation Photos

By submitting this nomination, the nominator and nominee acknowledge that CILT NZ may use materials provided as part of the award application for awards-related purposes, unless specific exclusions are noted below.

This may include the nominee’s name, organisation, role, award category, nomination summary, supporting statements, project or initiative descriptions, submitted images, supporting documents, case studies, reports, articles, and other materials provided with the application.

CILT NZ will not publish or promote the phone number or email address of the nominator or nominee.

Use may include publication or promotion on the CILT NZ website, social media, printed materials, media releases, event presentations, newsletters, magazines, and other CILT NZ communications.

Please list any specific materials, details, images, or information provided in this application that CILT NZ must not publish or use publicly:

8. Awards Presentation Photo Consent

Photos may be taken at CILT NZ awards presentations and related events. These photos may include people attending or participating in the event.

CILT NZ may wish to use awards presentation photos for awards-related and promotional purposes, including on the CILT NZ website, social media, printed materials, media releases, event presentations, newsletters, magazines, and other CILT NZ communications.

9. Award Terms and Conditions

By submitting a nomination, the nominator and nominee agree that:

- Entries close 5pm on 8 September 2026. Late entries may not be accepted.
- All nominations must be submitted electronically. No hard copy or postal nominations will be accepted.
- Award criteria will be strictly applied.
- CILT NZ may choose not to present an award if, in the judges' opinion, the required standard has not been met.
- Award winners do not need to be CILT NZ members, unless stated for a specific award.
- The judges' decision is final and no correspondence will be entered into about judging decisions.
- Judging may include follow-up questions, a presentation, interview, reference check, or site visit, depending on the award category.
- Prize payments or reimbursements will be made only in accordance with the conditions stated for the relevant award.
- CILT NZ may contact the nominator, nominee, referees, supervisors, employers, or relevant organisations to verify information provided in the nomination.
- CILT NZ will take reasonable care with confidential information clearly marked as confidential, but nominations should not include sensitive material that cannot be shared with judges and awards administrators.
- Personal information will be used for awards administration, judging, event preparation, and awards-related communications.
